THE FALL MEETING OPENS

First Day of Racing at Benning Provides Excellent Sport.

The Track Faster Than Ever and a Record Broken-The Amazon Wins the Grandstand Handienp-A Long Shot Finishes First in Last Event.

Probably the most auspicious opening ever accorded a fresh season of rackut in this city was that received by the Washington Jockey Club yesterlay after-noon, when the Benning track, amart with improvements, was thrown open to the public for the initial event of the full meeting. The occasion was more than a notable success—it was a complete trium;h-and the 6,000 lovers of the sport of kings who journeyed home from the course has night were loud in rare praise

Nothing that could possibly have added to the pleasure or comfort of the day was lacking. Nature herself was more then kind and the weather was ideal. The six events on the card were all well contested, and were exciting to the highest The gathering in attendance was the of the most brilliant in seasons. The great, new iron grandstand had its capacity tested for the first time, and rang with cheers during the running of the Birmicap named in honor of the hand-some structure. And as though all this not enough, the track itself was faster than it has ever been considered

There was a snap and vim about everything which bid fair to assure the success of racing in Washington Metropoli tan methods are everywhere in evidence where makeshifts were to be had before. The new Benning course is something to which the Capital can point with pride, and the improvements made are all of a highing character. The great crowds which swarmed through grandstand, betting ring, clobhouse, and paddock yester-Alter sow and appreciated, and as a result righed with regret when the last race had been run, and departed, vowing to

'ti was a carnival of the bangtails, was westerday's opening. It was a deficious round of speedy thoroughbreds, gay clad jocheys, well-groomed speciators, handsornely gowned women, cheers, appliance, and laughter. And through it all ran the music of patiering hoofs. Not a single eigectionable feature occurred to mar the pleasure of the occasion, while on the other hand, something was constantly transpiring to add to the delights of a

Air Washington seemed to be there, and with him came his pretty consort. The grandstand was brilliant with beautiful costumes and smiling faces. In the clubhouse the stand was massed with the flower of local society, and no contingent found more enjoyment in the day than this. They came in coaches and automobiles, by carriage and by train. The paddock was constantly crowded with them, and while the knowing makes six d up the points of the quivering steed, fresh from his warming-up canter, the ladies patted and petted the handsome animals. and lald their bets on a shapely nick or a sixek side or a well-formed bead. The dScaing day representation was such as estrate that racing has become the thing in Washington as in New York, and each day of the meeting will see the clubhouse was well filled.

[But in the masses in the grandstand lay the interest of the afternoon. Here applanded or expectantly awaited during the entire card. It was a typical Washentire card. It was a typical Washfagton gathering, and good-natured appreclution marked every action. So well did the local detectives, with the assistance of Pinkerton and his men, guard the character secured admission. This same policy will mark the entire meeting, and the number of family parties present yesterday demonstrated the confidence placed in President Howland's commend-rueing from the start in the first event. The strains of "The Washington Jockey Club March" died away, until the close finish in the sixth event, when Cherished nosed under the wire to the inspiring tri-umphs of "Teddy's Terrors." Of course, the great event of the day, to the major-lty of the grandstand occupants, was the steeplechase, which proved to be an exciting contest, despite the fact that the scratching of two entries left but three starters. It was a spectacular struggle between Baby Hill and Boisterous for nearly the whole two miles and a half, and the two-horse event brought forth more genuine entertainment than has many a field of ten jumpers. Cheesemite, who refused the jumps, and came home five minutes after the finish, received the Bon's share of the applause from the sympathetic spectators, and was given a in interest was the New Grandgiand Handless, with nine sigriers. The spectators simply went wild as the con-tenders struggled through the entire seven furlongs, and raced up the stretch. Kun frantic as The Amagon swept through to victory, while the women screamed with delight.

The other events were of a most satis-

The other events were of a most satisfactory insture. The fields were all large and were composed of good material. If the ballane of the meeting is un to the standard set yesterday, success is assured, and this in the face of the promise oil the part of the officials that what is to come will be even better than what was official on the opening day.

The Washington Jockey Club is to be entagratishated on the result of the season of improvements, which show a lavish expenditure of care, brain work, and cash. As has been said, the new grandstand is a magnifect of affair and all who attend the meeting are assured of plenty of room and a surfect of comforts. The chalbouse has been healify extended and new disting rooms gairfed to comforts. The chalbouse has been healify extended and new disting rooms gaided. The public restaurants and barmane clean and leviting. The grounds around the grandstand have been well cared for, and handsame plants fill up the nooks and corners. The paddock is equipped with stalls for starters and other conveniences.

The betting ring yesterday showed the space, and the misery of pushing and crowling which finde the vid ring a den of discomfort has been entirely done away with. During the six events thousands of men managed to place bets with the various bookmakers and yet no discomfort was experienced. Aside from this, the new ring has become a favorite lonnging place, where the merits of the catries may be debated, and yesterday witnessed a comparatively vacant space in front of the grandshind between races.

All in all, the opining yesterday was the most auspicious in the history of the board policy club, and as the Washington putitic appreciates good, clean sport who nerved up in structive shape, the fall meeting should prove a record-breaker in point of attendance and wherein finances are conterfied.

Market movements were by no means uniform and the advancing tendency was punctuated by occasional reactions, while a number of important stocks failed altogether to participate in the tenden cies commonly prevailing. At the same time, taken as a whole, the market was one of the broadest and strongest that might be said at the outset that, broadly speaking, the influence of the settlement of the Northwest railway conditions continued the dominant factor in the speculation. On the other hand, other influences conspired to stimulate speculative sentiment. The easier conditions in the money murket were sufficient evidence of the misleading character of the figures of Saturday's bank ratement. As noted, sterling exchange advanced, but the enhanced probabilities of abbitroral shipments of gold with the course of the week were entirely disregarded. So far as the Northern Pacific situation was concerned, the idea appeared to gain ground that the public would, for some time to come, have to dispense with any official announcement of the conclusion of the negotiations, but the disposition was evident to be less exacting in this last respect. Official announcement may not be altogether expedient, and to all intents and purposes it is enough to know that this most serious complication in the situation at large has been virtually adjusted, Sunday's semi-authoritative statements to that effect being commonly accepted as authentic.

Except for the views in this last respect to the cife of the process of the formal shed in regular changes in prices for American etocks, and upon the opening of business here, foreign nouses appeared as sellers, and disposed of about 25,00 shares on balance with the course of the forence on session. a triffe lighter, some loans being made at 4% per cent. This gave rise to pessimistic gossip regarding the probability that there will be a squeeze in money this week. There were no developments in the Northwestern situation, and no promises from the inside as to when an official announcement will be made. Despite these unfavorable factors, the market held its own handsomely, and in many cases showed excellent advances for the day. The secret of the busyancy of the market lies in the fact that the public has been persuaded to begin to buy stocks, and is now exerting an immense influence in favor of higher prices. The same influence is certainly likely to cause a further advance immediately, and even if there is a slight decline today or tonorrow on realizing, it is probable that the public will soon stop it by purchases on the recession. This condition has been long waited for. It is of the utmost importance to the future of the market. It may be stated without exaggeration that the factor is of as much moment to the trend of prices during the coming six months as all the other influences that may be exerted pogether. Conservative people are most horeful in their predictions.

At the high opening yesterday morning there was heavy selling of stocks by the professionals that Have been booming prices during the past month. As has been said, the public bought stocks Some of the larger professional operators were also buyers, apparently on the theory that, with the help of the public, a big November boom may be engineered. The insiders were believed to be buyers also, but it was difficult to trace purchases to them directly. Price movements were irregular, someo stocks, like St. Paul and Union Pacific, being strong enough but not buoyant, while other securities that have not been taken up before were jumped to a higher level rapidly. Some of the recently weak industrial securities were also buoyant for the first time. This phase of the market is not a bad sign. It looks rather like the usual tactics of an important upward movement when groups are moved up one after another, and not the entire list at once.

Baltimore and Ohio common was very and not the entire list at once.

Baltimore and Ohio common was very strong, getting up to 110 at one time. The stories regarding this stock were that important developments will be announced after the stockholders meeting next Monday. One atory persisted in strenuously is that the dividend on the stock will be increased to 5 per cent. This does not seem entirely unfiltely, as the carnings of the company for this stock are as large as those of almost any other system in the country, fully 10 per cent. Another steay is that there will be a considerable issue of new stock, which will be given to stockholders at par, making a valumble right, especially if the dividend is to be advanced. A careful account of the various matters likely to be taken up by the stockholders meeting next week was printed in The Times yesterday.

There was a runner in the street that the preferred will receive exactly the same terms in the Northern Pacific deal as the common stock, and that for this reason the preferred should sell very hearly, if not quite, as high as the latter.

Nothing new was heard regarding the Northwestern settlement, but the public is beginning to see the possibilities of the matter more clearly. It is very evident that the carnings of the railways of the entire Northwestern settlement, but the habits the earnings of the railways of the matter more clearly. It is very evident that the carnings of the railways of the entire Northwest will be increased, not only immediately, but permanently, by this deal if it is a success, as now seems certain.  MISCELLANEOUS STOCKS.

The rumor of a day or two ago that there was likely to be trouble with the miners in the anthracite coal regions seemed to meet with little encouragement yesterday in the street. The Eric securities were especially blooyant and the entire group went up during the day on what seemed to be good buying. The carnings of the group are immense. There is much buillish talk regarding Ontario and Western.

People's Gas was strong in the morning but sold off somewhat later in the day. The talk of a cut in the dividend on the stock is, to say the least, premature. The dividend declared recently has not yet been paid and there will not be another to act on for some time.

The earnings of the illinois Central are especially good. The Cetober gross earnings show an increase of $2,000 over a phenomenally heavy month but year. The carnings for the four months from the leginning of the fiscal year show an increase of $1,64,500. The act carnings for three months ending September show a marvelous increase, nearly $1,00,000, or nearly 30 per cent over the same months of last year. The stock of the company is selling a long way below other securities on which the showing of earnings is not so good.

All the steel securities were active and strong yesterday. The United States Steels made on high prices and held them well, despite heavy realizing. It is said that the public is luying these stocks heavily. Tennessee Coal and from and Republic Steel both advanced well, and American Car Foundry common and preferred were biocyant. The sharp advance in the latter stocks seems to be dise to the immense demand for cars all over the country and the high prices that the company is obtaining. The glut of business on the railways has made at most a car famine, and this is resulting in heavy and importunate car orders.

Advances were made in Sugar and in Copper it was said that the buying in both cases was largely for the short interest. There has been much short acting in Sugar, and the general strength of the market for meny days in succession seems to have frightened the gambling element.

It is said that there is a good prospect of a dividend on San Francisco common stock. Insiders are said to be loying the stock industriously. The company shows carnings equal to nearly 5 per cent of the issue as that the rumor of a divi-dend in not in the least illogical.
